

What Is A Vintage Car And Why Is It An Excellent Choice Of Car For Your Wedding Or Civil Ceremony

Everyone wants to look back on their wedding with fond memories. It is one of the most important days of their life, and one that you would want to enjoy in style. One part of the wedding day which is often over looked is the wedding cars.

The vintage car is a transport favourite and the term 'vintage car' is any motor vehicle no longer in production, built between the 1930s to the 1950s that were high-priced when new, have marque loyalty, and are still popular today. These cars were built in limited quantities with custom coachwork and luxury accessories, they have style, great charm and character. Their workmanship is of a higher quality which usually means they have a nicer more comfortable ride.

Vintage wedding car hire comes in various styles and can be a great photograph opportunity for your wedding album or video as well for your guests. So you want your transport to be something special and possibly tie in with your wedding theme or venue. Some guests may wait outside to see you arrive, and then everyone will see you and your groom leave for, and arrive at the reception.

Vintage cars are a firm favourite of wedding car and selecting the right wedding car is largely a matter of personal choice. They are splendidly grand and spacious wedding cars, expensive to buy and maintain, they are usually more expensive to hire than modern vehicles, but are glorious wedding cars. There are a great number of alternative vehicles available from the traditional vintage chauffeur driven saloons such as a 1950s Rolls Royce Silver Cloud, to a Daimler Limousine, which is a vehicle with a glass partition behind the driver.

No matter what car style is decided upon for the wedding day, make sure the car will stand out from the crowd, because this is the day when you want to be noticed by everybody. Consider using the wedding vehicle in several of the wedding photographs to make the experience last a life time.

With this information you can start looking for a wedding car hire company with these types of vehicles, many wedding transport websites have pictures of the their cars and offer advise on the limitations of use and seating capacity etc. The more detailed the information you provide when contacting them, the more accurate the quotation that is offered.

It is recommended that you arrange to view older cars to check the cars condition before booking, and reputable companies will always agree to this. It will also identify whether the company is the actual wedding car owner or just an agent .
